7. To consider how to mark the passing of Cllr Bryan

After a lengthy discussion Members made the following suggestions:

- A memorial service for Cllr Bryan
- A presentation of a Hedon plaque to Cllr Bryan's family by the Mayor
- A gift of the Silver Show DVD
- A gift of Cllr Bryan's Town Council framed photo to his wife

Members also noted the passing of Mrs Ann Suggitt – a former Hedon Town Councillor and Mayor; it was agreed that a memorial service/plaque at a separate event would be appropriate.

However, it was agreed that nothing could be held at present until Covid 19 was under control and gatherings/church services etc were allowed once more. This item would be revisited once Covid 19 regulations were eased.

Agenda item 4

The attached sheet contains details of decisions taken from 26 March to 31 August 2020 (dealt with under delegated authority due to the Coronavirus pandemic)

TOWN COUNCIL ISSUES

- 27.05.20 Replied to approach from Holderness Health re locations for 'drive thru flu vaccinations'. Council was generally supportive of idea but not sure that Market Hill was the ideal location; idea has since been withdrawn.
- 24.06.20 Decision to postpone Annual Meeting of Town Council until May 2021 – current Mayor/Deputy Mayor/Committees to remain in post until then.

JOINT TOWN COUNCIL/F&GP ISSUE

- 25.06.20 Discussed with Mayor/Dep Mayor and Chair/Dep Chair of F&GP – decided to hold Extraordinary Meeting of Council to fulfil deadlines by remote access only which meant expenditure on 4 laptops and IT time. (F&GP Dep Chair did not agree with the expenditure).
