HEDON TOWN COUNCIL

7. To agree the way forward following the end of Coronavirus Regulations with regard to Council meetings whilst social distancing restrictions were in force
Cllr Goldspink declared a pecuniary interest as she was a member of St Augustine's PCC; she took no part in the vote.

The Chairman referred to the information provided by the Town Clerk with regard to physical meetings, venues and possible solutions. It was noted that ERNLLCA were expecting a decision to be made by the end of April as to whether the regulations would be extended for the duration of social distancing regulations. However, the Council needed to decide a way forward in case there was no extension.

After a lengthy discussion Members agreed that, in the case of a return to physical meetings from midnight on 6 May 2021, meetings would be held in St Augustine's Church.

Members also agreed that the Town Council Annual Meeting and Mayormaking ceremony should be held as a physical meeting in St Augustine's Church on Thursday 20 May 2021.
